PHOTOGRAPHED AT CITY HALL

The above picture of Miyake and Jack Harbertson, who are to stage a finish match at the Alhambra theatre on April 9th, was taken late last Saturday afternoon on the steps of the city hall, immediately after signing the articles governing the bout.

Miyake has refused to don tight or shoes, giving for his reason that he had never worn them and that if he should start wearing them at this stage of the game, he might become nervous. He feels that to don tight and shoes might divert his mind from the work at hand and might cause him to doubt the ability of his legs.

Harbertson has also given in to wrestle in a twenty-foot ring. This will allow the Jap to exercise all his remarkable holds without being afraid of getting his man under the ropes.

Harbertson has been in training since his bout with John Berg and is at present in the best of condition.

Miyake has started his training. All of his workouts will be conducted in private.

"Our Jack" is to wrestle tonight at the Fourth ward amusement hall, in a benefit performance. He has agreed to throw ten men within an hour. He has donated his services free to the ward and the receipts will be used for the betterment of the amusement hall.

Promoter C. E. Carille is endeavoring to arrange for a preliminary bout for the big match a week from Wednesday, between William Mohler, champion wrestler of the navy, and Grant, champion wrestler of Camp Lewis.

The carpenters have started work at the Alhambra theatre, erecting the bleachers for the match and also constructing the ring. Due to the size of the ring there will be but a small number of ring-side seats. The sale of seats starts at 2 p. m. today.

PARIS, April 2.—The notable feat of a giant French biplane in reaching an altitude of more than 20,000 feet yesterday was accomplished under the handicap of a load comprising the pilot, Lieutenant Boussotrot, four passengers and a ballast representing eight others. The record of 20,300 feet, officially determined, is a new one for a flight under such conditions.

Lieutenant Boussotrot said after the flight that he could have reached an altitude of 25,000 feet but that the steering gear of the airplane began to freeze and he preferred not to take the risk of its jamming.

Finger Prints in Home of Accused
Doctor Examined

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—Finger prints found in the San Mateo home of Dr. Ephraim Northcott were examined by the police here tonight, following arrest of the physician on a charge of murder in connection with the death of Miss Inez Reed, army nurse. Miss Reed's body was found in a ravine near San Mateo March 8, following an illegal operation.

Dr. Northcott's offices here were examined by the police today but no records of patients' visits found, they said. All of his instruments were taken to headquarters.

Miss Frances Cronin, Dr. Northcott's office nurse, who was questioned by the police last night, was not arrested, as was erroneously reported, but was allowed her full liberty, and no charge is contemplated against her, the police said today. Miss Cronin will be asked to testify in the hearing of Dr. Northcott.

Dr. Northcott was to be taken to San Mateo tonight by a representative of the San Mateo county sheriff's office. As the crime was committed in that county, according to the police, his trial will take place there. He stolidly refused today to make any admissions, although confronted with the remains of Miss Reed's mesh bag and other of the dead girl's belongings said to have been found in a grate of the San Mateo house.

He also plans two four-round bouts and one six-round bout as preliminaries.

COUNCIL OF FOUR TO DEBATE FOR THREE DAYS

PARIS, April 2.—Consideration of the question of reparations and the disposition of the Rhine valley was continued by the council of four, comprising President Wilson and the premiers of France, Great Britain and Italy, when the session of the council was resumed today. It is understood to be probable that at least three more days will be occupied with these subjects.

American financial experts were called into the session today.

MINE OPERATORS
MAY FORCE OLD
BIDDING PLAN

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Railroad administration officials indicated today that a return to the old system of competitive bidding for railroad coal contracts might be the outcome of the attempt of mine operators to force the administration to pay the same prices for its fuel as the public. There was no denial that the senate agreed today by the operators and the industrial conference board of the department of commerce was not acceptable to the administration.

Director-General Hines, just returned from an inspection tour, began consideration of the controversy immediately but refused to say anything concerning his plans.

During the war the railroad administration in many instances purchased fuel at market prices because of desire to stimulate production, but now since that necessity has passed the contention is made that the railroads are entitled to reductions formerly given by the coal operators because of the immense purchases and the elimination of a great part of the marketing expense in selling to railroads.

The railroad administration evidently does not consider that the presence of its representative on the industrial conference board binds the administration to accept all its decisions. It is held there that authority conferred by President Wilson on the board extends only to the arranging of price scales to be accepted by government purchasing agencies if "agreeable" to them.

Secretary Glass and other cabinet members will confer today with Mr. Hines and the board regarding its recommendations on coal and also steel purchases, both for the railroads and other government agencies.

BILLY MISKE'S REMARKABLE DEVELOPMENT IN THREE SHORT YEARS
AN EXAMPLE

BY JACK REDDY,

Manager of the famous Billy Miske.

ST. PAUL, Minn.

Outdoor life has done wonders for Billy Miske.

In fact, I have known of many star athletes who have profited greatly by living and training in the open and I ascribe that as the main factor in Miske's wonderful success in the ring.

Billy Miske, who now is right at the top in the ranks of the light heavyweights in this country, and who has met many a man considerably heavier than himself, has developed from a 168-pounder three years ago to a heavyweight weighing 190 pounds today.

And outdoor training more than anything else has made the remarkable change in this husky fellow.

wheat scarcity was so acute that wheat and flour exports from the United States had been stopped was chiefly responsible. Victory for the liquor interests in the Chicago election was also an important factor. The steepest advance was in corn for September delivery, a rise to $1.38 as against $1.32½ at the finish on Monday.

Traders took the view that corn products for export would be much more in demand in place of wheat and flour. It was a popular opinion also that rye and barley would be largely bought on the chance that the result of the Chicago election would be interrupted by a referendum on prohibition and that with a peace treaty signed before July 1 prohibition would not be permitted to take effect.

The official announcement was made at New York last night by Julius Barnes, head of the grain division of the food administration, according to reports received here. Mr. Barnes was quoted as saying:

"We have advised the neutral governments that America will be unable to furnish any more wheat or wheat flour to them; that they are free to buy other grains in our markets, but must seek wheat in other markets."

Mr. Barnes, it was reported, said that beginning next week the grain corporation will buy for shipment to liberated countries which need relief, rye flour, corn flour and barley flour and will thereby reduce its current purchases of wheat flour. He said further that if these measures failed to keep the price of wheat flour at a reasonable level import restrictions would be relaxed to permit the United States to import from Argentina, Australia and Canada.

During the forenoon the price of rye flour 7 cents and barley 34 cents on the board of trade.

INFLUENZA FATAL TO YOUNG WOMAN. BRIGHAM CITY, April 1.—Miss Lily H. Strangquist died at the home of her parents in this city yesterday from influenza, followed by pneumonia, after a week's illness.

Miss Strangquist was born in this city February 26, 1895, and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lars Strangquist, early Utah pioneers. She was graduated from the Boxelder high school in 1915. She had been an active worker in the primary and Sunday schools of this city for ten years.

Funeral arrangements have not been made, pending the arrival of two brothers from Chicago. In addition to the brothers, she is survived by her parents and two sisters.

LEAGUES BUY PLAYERS. WASHINGTON, April 2.—The National league paid $88,660 and the American league $16,590 for players taken over from Federal league baseball clubs when the latter were disbanded, according to evidence given to the jury in the Baltimore Federal club's damage suit against organized baseball. Details of the payments were not disclosed, although counsel for the Baltimore club intimated that the entire sum was received by an individual among the defendants.

Soldier athletes of 33 allied nations will don their flimsy track lingerie at Saint-Maur, near Joinville, a short distance from Paris, June 12, for the Pershing Olympic.

Those who predict that the American army will not be properly represented will be "all wiled up" when they learn that Uncle Sam has over 100 athletic specialists in training at Nice for this inter-allied contest.

Among those training at Nice is Paddy Ryan with the hammer. Another star is Howard Drew, the sensational sprinter, who will have a worthy opponent in Georges Andre of France, who has taken all the ribbons around Paris the past year. And there is Harry Worthington, the Dartmouth broad jumper, who never fails to stretch out under 24 feet, and Duncan who holds the world's record for the discus.

Richards of Cornell, the present Olympic record holder for the high jump, is springing around. He won his last event over the German Lieut. Lische, who has been reported killed in action. With this crew and Maxfield, your uncle's best shot putter, Shields, who stars in the mile, and Markler the Californian "sit-three" man in the jumps, the Yanks ought to have their allied brothers well on the defensive.
